Ritualists Excited over the Rescript of Pope Pius—The Press still Discuss the Probabilities of War Between the United States and Spain—Effect of Pere Hyacinth's Letter to the Pope—Still Another Aspirant for the Spanish Throne—Spain Resolved to Save Cuba at all Hazards.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 22.—The Ritualists, clerical and lay, are just now deeply excited over the contents of the letter or rescript of Pope Pius the Ninth, in which His Holiness repudiates the idea of non-Catholics or persons not in full communion with the Catholic Church attending at the Ecumenical Council in Rome, and taking part in the proceedings. Puseyism or ritualism will not do. The delegates must belong to the Holy Mother by profession and baptism. Rev. Dr. Cumming will not, consequently, have an opportunity of an oral discussion with the assembled prelates.

LONDON, September 22.—One hundred thousand dollars in gold was withdrawn from the Bank for New York.

The prospects of a cotton crop in India are favorable.

SPAIN.

LONDON, September 22.—The Times says the Spaniards have found the advantage of a bold display of patriotism and national courage. They met an imagined affront with immediate defiance, though their threatened adversary is ten times more powerful than themselves. Sickles is manifestly alarmed at the result of his proceedings, and has requested further instructions Pending a reply from Washington he desired to withdraw his note. If this is the actual case, Spain shows her own fearlessness, which may savor of unreason, but does not partake of the nature of bravado. She has declared that, if driven to extremity, she will fight. No doubt she will, but for her to gain any advantage by doing so is out of the question. But as the matter stands she will lose less by war than her adversary. America may fairly decline an easy victory on such onerous and political terms. The people and government of Spain are resolved not to part with Cuba without a struggle. A contest could only result in the sacrifice of Cuba, coupled with other, but with slight loss. Sickles expected no such resistance as his note provoked. Possibly in the face of such opposition. his proceedings may be qualified or repudiated by his Government. It is believed he exceeded his authority, and America cannot be responsible for his act.

The Standard thinks the loss of Cuba, and perhaps Porto Rica, would be the certain result of a war with the United States. Here the mischief for Spain would end, after months of combat, for she must agree to peace. But this mischief would bring with it no corresponding good to the United States. War would cause serious interruption of her commerce and result in the wholesale destruction of her shipping. It is not probable the American Government will interfere any further in Cuban affairs.

MADRID, September 22.—The Treaty of Commerce between England and Spain will soon be completed.

The first subject of discussion before the Cortes on reassembling will be the choice of a King. Of the candidates thus far suggested, the King of Portugal seem to be the favorite.

General Pierrad arrived at Taragona Tuesday, and the Republicans made a great demonstration in his honor. Much excitement prevailed, and there were some disturbances in the street, during which the Secretary of the Governor was killed. The Government authorities then took vigorous steps to restore order. Many persons were arrested, the Republican clubs dispersed, and the Volunteers of Liberty disarmed. An order has been issued for arrest of Pierrad.

Gen. Prim has returned from France. Soon after his arrival a Cabinet Council was held, at which it was resolved to use every effort to save Cuba and to despatch more troops to the island.

The Tarragona affair was also discussed, and strong measures proposed for the preservation of public order.

Prince Napoleon is spoken of as a candidate for the Throne.

TARRAGONA, Sept. 22.—Gen. Peirrod has fled from here to Valencia. It is reported he was stopped at Torrosto and arrested.

MADRID, Sept. 22.—The Republican papers here disavow and reprobate the violence committed at Torragona.

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 22.—A banquet and fete were given in this city in commemoration of the 21st of September, 1792.

PARIS, September 22—Evening.—The Emperor presided at the Council of Ministers to-day.

Evidence has been discovered which leads to the belief that the woman and five children discovered dead this week were murdered by the husband and eldest son of the family.

PARIS, September 22.—Le Temps says the noble and courageous answer of Pere Hyacinthe will create an immense effect, appearing, as it has, on the eve of a great council. It is truly a sign of the times.

Le Siecle is of the opinion that the attitude of the eloquent and earnest preacher must exercise great influence in the present crisis of the Church.

The Journal des Debats looks upon the religious situation as one fraught with serious consequences. It is said the coming Council at Rome will meet only to ratify the decision of a most nitramontane committee. but the attitude of certain German and American bishops, and the complaints of certain illustrious French ecclesiastics, show that the labors of the Council will not be so easy and direct as was anticipated. If the Syllabus triumphs, it will be with a struggle, and the triumph can only be ephemeral.

LONDON, Sept. 22—The Daily Telegraph estimates the declaration of Father Hyacinth as merely one of the many manifestations revealing the commotion in the Roman Catholic Church, which promises to make the ecumenical council the occasion of anything but spiritual peace.

SWITZERLAND.

LAUSANNE, September 22.—The Universal Peace Congress is now in session here. Yesterday a banquet was given to the delegates. Victor Hugo was present and offered a toast to the Republic of the United States. He said he felt sure that imitating the example of America, Europe would eventually become a federative republic.

The Commercial Depression—Repeated Earthquakes—The People Flee to the Pampas—Yellow Fever.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 22.—The steamship Arizona brings Panama dates to the 13th. The commercial depression still continues at Panama.

Several shocks of earthquake had taken place along the Peruvian coast. On the 15th of August, at Arica, the shock was terribly severe at half past four in the morning, and at five in the afternoon a second shock occurred; and at nine a third, but both of the latter were much lighter than the preceding one. One account says that in Arica there were no less than forty earthquakes on the 19th, all more or less strong. The people, dreading another sea inundation, completely deserted the place, taking refuge in Tana and elsewhere. In Iquque very strong shocks were felt very early in the morning of the 15th, causing the inhabitants to desert their beds and take to the surrounding pampas.

Yellow fever has again made its appearance at Pisa Gua and Mejellones.

Similar reports of the movement of the earthquake are received from Tacna and Arequipa.

Peabody Institute—Additional Donation.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, September 22.—George Peabody visited the Peabody Institute to-day, during a meeting of the Trustees, and made an additional donation of $300,000 of Tennessee 6 per cent. bonds, and $100,000 in Virginia State 6 per cent. bonds. This sum is designed by the doner for the erection of a building similar to and adjoining the present institute, the site for which has already been purchased, any remainder of the above amount, after the construction of the new building, is to be applied to a gallery of painting of sculpture. Mr. Peabody, in his letter making the donation, refers to the pecuniary difficulties of Tenn., but expresses confidence in the great national resources of the State, and the high sense of honor of her people, and advises the trustees to keep these bonds for the present, as they are increasing in value, and when necessary to dispose of them at the highest price.

WASHINGTON, September 29.

PRESIDENT GRANT IN WASHINGTON.

Pesident Grant and family returned to Washington this morning.

Secretary Cox, and Attorney General Hoar, called upon him soon after his arrival. They subsequently visited the Department of State.

SPECULATIONS ON SPANISH-AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

After the return of the President this morning, and particularly as he spent several hours with Secretary Fish, at the Department of State, much anxiety was was expressed to ascertain the character of the conference, the supposition being that it had reference to our relations with Spain. This is probable, but there is no authority for the positiye assertion. It is certain, however, that no action was taken on the premises.

It is already known that some time ago Minister Sickles was instructed to offer the United States government as a mediator between Spain and Cuba, representations having been made to it by respectable parties, who had visited Spain and obtained interviews with prominent personages, that its friendly offices would meet with favor. Such offers not being uncommon in our own history, and that of other nations, minister Daniel E. Sickles approached the Spanish Government upon the subject and had the desired interview. Contrary to European telegrams there is no reason for supposing that the Spanish Government took offense, or has sought to involve other Governments in the action. The Spanish Government, after mature consideration of the proffered relation, has thanked the U. S. Government for its friendly disposition, but is not willing to agree to our accommodation between Spain and Cuba on the terms proposed. The end of the matter simply is, that the mediation is declined.

SMALL NOTES EXCHANGED FOR LARGE DENOMINATIONS.

In order to supply the pressing demand for small notes for circulation, the Comptroller is willing to receive notes of large denominations from National Banks, of their own issue, and give them notes of smaller denomination, with as little delay as possible, and every facility will be afforded to the Banks in making such exchanges, that the public may be accommodated with small notes.

A FLAT DENIAL.

An article recently appeared in a Northern paper entitled "Prospective Description of the Cabinet—Another House Wanted." No such letter addressed to Secretary Fish, as alleged, has been received by him or by any member of the Cabinet, or is there the least justification for connecting the name of Secretary Cox with any such idea or proposal.

PAYMENT OF NOVEMBER COUPONS.

The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the payment of coupons falling due on the 1st of November upon a rebate of interest at the rates of six per cent. per annum.

National Irish Immigration Convention—Address of the Executive Committee.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, September 22.—The Executive Committee having in charge the affairs connected with the National Irish Immigration Convention have issued the following brief address to the Irishmen of the United States:

The National Convention called by the delegates from the various States, will meet in St. Louis on the 6th of October. Its object is to ameliorate the condition of the Irish immigrant in this free land of his adoption; to secure this, it is designed to encourage him to settle upon and fil the vast unoccupied but fertile lands of the Great West, and secure him and his family from the moral contamination and poverty consequent upon a residence in the great cities.

The gentlemen who originated and who are now endeavoring to carry out this benevolent project, are actuated only by disinterested motives. They have received the approval of a large number of the distinguished prelates and clergy, as well as that of many of the prominent laymen of the Union. It is therefore hoped that all to whom the success of the cause is dear will interest themselves so far as to see that their city and State are represented. This hope is expressed particularly to the Irishmen of the Eastern and Middle States, and even more especially to those residing in the great State of New York.

The number of delegates is not limited for any city or State. In conclusion, we say that the benificent results to be expected from this great cause should inspire every Irishman throughout the land to do his duty.

[Signed.] Joseph O'Neil, Constatine Maguire, Thos. Dailey, D. H. Denovan. John D. Finney, Executive Committee.

A mass meeting will be held here on Saturday night to elect delegates from this city, to the above Convention.

Terrible Tragedy—Colored People's Celebration.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MADISON, September 23.—A terrible tragedy occurred near this city yesterday afternoon. Wm. Moody, an old and respected farmer, murdered his wife with a hatchet, dragged her body from the house, set fire to the dwelling and outbuildings, standing guard over the burning buildings until they were consumed. He afterwards shot himself dead with a gun. He would allow no one to interfere to save anything. A considerable amount of money was burned.

The colored celebration to-day was a grand affair. The procession was two miles long. Mr. Parm, of Ohio, addressed them before dinner, followed by Hon. John R. Cravens and Hon. John A. Miller.

The trial of Dr. E. J. Engleman, for burglary, commenced in the Criminal Court yesterday, after two day's effort to impannel a jury.

POLITICAL.

Massachusetts Republican Convention,—Speech of Senator Sumner—Patriotic Resolves.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WORCESTER, MASS., September 22.—The Republican State Convention met this morning. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. Hon. Chas. Sumner presided and made an eloquent speech. The entire State ticket was re-nominated by acclamation, with the exception of State Auditor, the name of Chas. Endicott, of Canton, being substituted for that of the present incumbent.

Dr. Loving made a speech at the caucus held on Tuesday night and claimed that the Republicans of to day were the same as when they sustained the Chicago platform and insisted that the promises of that platform for citizenship, free suffrage and the honest payment of the national debt were being carried out through the administration of General Grant. The result was witnessed in the development of the recources of the country and its general peace and prosperity. He favored Chinese suffrage, and advocated a close union in the ranks of the party.

Senator Sumner, in the ceurse of his speech to the Republican State Convention, said: In our foreign relations there are with me two cardinal principles which I have no hesitation to avow at all times—first: Peace with all the world. Second: Sympathy with all struggling for human rights. In this spirit he would now approach Spain. He traced the history of that country. Speaking of the patronage which enabled Columbus to discover this new world, of all the possessions once held in this country, Cuba and Porto Rico alone remain; and Cuba is now in arms against her mother country. While Spain is struggling to hold the little that remains to her in this new world, two questions occur, first, as to the duty of Spain, and second, as to the duty of the United States. Quoting from a French statesman the words uttered in 1850, he said that colonies are like fruits which hold to the tree only till maturity comes, when they will do what Carthage did, and what America will some day do. The speaker questioned whether Cuba has not arrived at that state of maturity. The day has come, he said, when the sovereignty of any foreign power over the colonies on this hemisphere must cease. [Applause.] And yet while Spain has her duties to perform, there remains a distinct policy for the United States, and that is, of strict non-intervenation except in the way of good offices, Spain is at this moment engaged in a comedy and a tragedy. The comedy is hunting for a King, and the tragedy is sending armies against Cuba. It is not for us to become actors, either in the comedy or the tragedy. If Spain is wise she will give up both. As to the question of the recognition of belligerent rights to the Cubans, I find no Government, no towns, no cities, judiciary, ports, or commerce, to authorize such recognition. And again biligerant rights should never, in the opinion of the speaker, be accorded to any nation or country which does not recognize the freedom of every man.

On the subject of our relations with England, the speaker said he would gladly hold his peace. But yielding to the wishes of his friends, he would speak briefly. He had no hesitation in saying, as he had always said, that we, as a nation had suffered fearfully at the hands of England. He did not say this in bitterness, but in sadness. That in view of all England's complicity in our rebellion he would not attempt to set a price upon the debt which that nation owes to us. He would not make any formal demand upon that power—not a dollar of money—not a word of apology. He would leave it to England, upon due consideration of the subject, to offer such reparation as she deems proper, and to our country it remains, upon such a consideration, to decide what reparation we shall require.

Mr. Sumner referred to the subject of the proposed annexation of Canada to our own country, and in the light of history and of property, as well as of national policy, it was certain that the day was already dawning, in which we should see the whole land joined under the government of the United States.

Resignation of the Officers of the Board of Trade—Reasons for Their Action—Lively Time Anticipated.

CHICAGO, September 22—Considerable excitement was created at the Board of Trade to-day by the resignation of the officers of the Board. The cause of the resignation is made known in the following preamble and resolutions presented by the officers for acceptance by the Board, and which the rules of the Board, are required to lie over one day before action is taken on them:

WHEREAS, It is the opinion of the Directors that the resolution of the Board, adopted on the evening of the 20th inst., requesting the Directors to restore Messrs. Goodyear and McHenry to the privileges of the Board, contemplates a direct violation of the ninth section of rule five, wherein it it the duty of the Directors to hold members suspended until the matter complained of has been arranged or settled,—and Whereas the Directors, individually and unanimously, hold that in their acts they should deal with facts, irrespective of the standing or influence of the parties involved, and could not consistently with their views of duty exercise the discipline of the board on any member that should not be exercised on all under similar circumstances. Therefore be it

Resolved, That rather than surrender their deeply laid ideas of duty in the official position they are placed in, the Board of Directors will return to their constituents the trusts committed to their hands, to the end that more acceptable servants may be selected to perform the prescribed duties assigned by the officers.

The following resolutions, offered by Mr. V. A. Turpin, were also read and in accordance with the rule of the board laid over for action till to morrow:

Resolved, That the Board of Trade has received notice of the resignation of its officers with profound regret.

Resolved, That the action of the adjourned meeting of the full Board on the evening of the 20th inst. is not the sentiment of this Board.

Resolved, That the officers of the Board are respectfully requested to withdraw their resignations.

A lively time is anticipated to-morrow when action is taken on the resolutions.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—"Elizabeth Queen of England" was repeated at the Opera House last evening to a large and appreciative audience, Mrs. Waller's rendition of this great historidn actor is unsurpased by that of any other actress on this side of the water, and her support was all that could be desired. To-night "Grireldo; or Woman's Heart,, will be presented, and on Friday night Mrs. Waller takes a benefit, when she will appear in her great speciality of the "Duches of Malfi," which all lovers of the legitament drama should see.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE. — The audiences at the Pittsburgh Theatre are large as usual and will continue to be so while Mr. Williams furnishes such excellent entertainments. Mr. Taylor continues to amuse the patrons of the establishment.

GREGORIES.—The Academy of Music was well filled last night. The Gregories are great favorites here and their entertainments are of an excellent character.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A SCHOOL-GIRL OF THE PERIOD.

Geography? Yes, there's a lesson each day,
But its awfully hard to remember.
We've been in South Africa nearly a month;
Perhaps we'll go north by November.

What History have we? Its quite a big book,
Without any pictures—be bother!
To-day I was told I'd sustained a defeat
In the battle of—something or other!

Arithmetic? Oh. Its the bane of my life!
No matter how hard I may study,
My knowledge of dividends fractions and rules
Continues unchangeably muddy.

Proficient in spelling? I hope that I am,
Though I shine less as writer than talker;
And don't mind confessing how often I use
A pocket edition of Walker.

I write compositions? Of course, once a week—
We've such a dull subject to-morrow!
I manage to spin out a page and a half,
Though lots of girls copy and borrow.

You ask me which lesson of all I prefer?
You'll think my reply quite alarming;
In French we've a gentil man teacher you know,
And somehow its perfectly charming!

A MAN and his grandson went out hunting in Arkansas last week. The boy got behind some bushes and whistled like a turkey, and his grandfather shot him.

THE Saturday Review thinks the man who got into the way of the boat race and caused Oxford to lose a length, ought to be condemned "to an infamous immortality."

SCIENCE threatens the extinguishment of "the dusty miller." A method has been discovered of making bread without grinding the grain, and a patent has been taken out for the process.

A CITIZEN of Philadelphia on Monday conducted some relatives to the State House steeple, and while adjusting the telescope to his eye, sank back in a state of syncope and was taken up dead.

Two Philadelphia burglars, Harmon and Thomas, under arrest at Columbus, Ohio, were released on Monday, and immediately took an Eastern train. A Pennsylvania officer arrived soon after with the necessary authority to take them into custody.

BIDDY COX, an old woman, who for many years sold tripe in the St. Louis market, died on Saturday. On searching her premises $900 in gold and $4,000 in greenbacks were found concealed in the cellar. She leaves a husband to mourn her loss, and inherit her wealth.

QUITE a number of small lawyers in New York having advertised of late that they can procure divorces without publicity, for a small sum of money, one of the firms has been summoned before the Supreme Court to show cause why they should not be compelled to refund money thus obtained.

THE CITIZENS of Decatur, Illinois, have purchased a silver set of thirty-three pieces, eight per cent. finer than current coin, for presentation to the Rev. Peter Cartwright, D. D. In addition ex-Gov. Oglesby has purchased a fifty dollar Turkish chair, which will be presented with the silver set.

THE seven days Feast of Tabernacles, commemorating the in gathering of the fruits of the earth, began with the Jews at six o'clock Monday evening. It is one of the three annual celebrations commanded by the Mosaic law, and is strictly observed by all classes and conditions of this scattered people.

HON. HUMPHRY MARSHALL, after saying that the penitentiary system of Kentucky is a disgrace and a public shame, worse than the slave trade ever was, despondingly adds, "but as it is a mine from which men can extract wealth, it is a heavy job for any man or set of men to undertake to reform."

A MAN in Milwaukee deposited $100 in a bank, and being told the interest would be five per cent., at the end of the year he came with five dollars in currency to pay the interest. Learning that the interest went the other way, he departed wondering why a man should pay him for being allowed to take care of his money a whole year.

ONE C. M. Case, of New York, who recently became bondsman for Henry Woods, a notorious counterfeiter, representing that he owned five thousand acres of land in Suffolk county, L. I., on which there was no incumbrance, has been held in $15,000 for examination, it appearing that his statement under oath is contradicted by the record.

AT Milwaukee thus far the peach business has been an active and profitable one to all engaged in it. Up to Saturday last about one hundred thousand baskets and cases have been received at that port, and notwithstanding the fact that several thousand baskets are landed daily, the supply is not equal to the demand. The average price is one dollar per basket.

IN the vicinity of Richmond Ind., on Saturday of last week, Harry Todd, a bright lad of fifteen, went out a gunning, and wandering from his companions became tired and laid down by a tree to rest. One of the boys coming toward him mistook a lock of his hair, which could be seen at the foot of the tree, for a squirrel, and fired, the shot taking effect in Harry's temple, killing him instantly.

IN TESTIMONY of the esteem in which Mr. Geo. S. Bennett, lately deceased, was held, citizens of Cincinnati are contributing liberally to a fund to be presented to his widow. Mr. B. was for many years city editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and was also at one time a theatre manager. Among other contributors to the fund is Mr. John T. Ford, of Baltimore, who was associated with Mr. B. at the National Theatre in Cincinnati.

UNDER the head of "Divorce Extraordinary," the Weston (Mo.) Landmark, of the 10th inst., omiting the names of the parties, gives the following: "We have just learned that an old gentleman aged ninety-four years, and his wife aged eighty-seven, residents of Pettis township, after living together for seventy years, concluded the other day to dissolve their marital relation. They made an equal division of their property, and went their separate ways. A more remarkable divorce case is seldom heard."

BRIEF but terrific storms seem to be the order of the day. We read of them in all quarters of the country, having the same peculiarities. At Utica, N. Y., on Sunday afternoon flashes of lightning of the most dazzling kind were succeeded by thunder so loud as to lead to the conjecture that about all the artillery in the world had been discharged at once, and then the rain came pouring down as water does over a mill dam, flooding the gutters and streets almost immediately. The storm lasted but a few minutes, the clouds quickly passing away and the sun shining as brightly as before.

ALICE CLEVELAND, daughter of a farmer living near Durand, Wisconsin, committed suicide a few days ago by jumping from a high bluff, near Racine. She lived but a few hours. Her father was sent for, and arrived in time to take home the remains. He related the following facts: Nine years ago his house was burned, and his wife and two children perished in the flames; his daughter was with great difficulty saved. The fright and sorrow at the terrible affair so affected the girl's mind as to produce a sort of insanity, and since that time it has been necessary to keep a careful watch over her.

TWO PARTIES are after the insurance of $10,000 on the life of a Mr. Dalton, in New York. Mr. D. took out the policy for the benefit of his wife. She died, however, and he married again, and now, at his death, the second wife claims the $10,000, the same as she does the estate of the first wife. But it is claimed that, although Mr. D. continued to pay the premium after the death of his first wife, he did not transfer the policy to the second by name, that of the first only being mentioned in the policy. An application has been made for an order to the Royal Insurance Company to pay the money into court. The decision has not yet been announced.

LAST SATURDAY night, at Slade's switch, five miles east of Buffalo, on the N. Y. Central Railroad, some fiend removed the bolt, leaving the signal lamp "all right," but turned the switch so that the first train would run off the track. It is thought to have been the intention of the wretch to wreck the 11:30 passenger express, but fortunately an extra freight train came along at a slow rate of speed and fell into the trap, and the result was nothing more than a detention of four or five hours. Had the express train, going at a high rate of speed, passed over first, it is probable that a great many lives would have been lost, and much human misery entailed.

A MAN in Amherst, Mass., lost his wife some months ago, and immediately after the funeral married her sister. The new wife was sent into New Hampshire to remain until the husband resumed his work, when he was to send for her. He then went to Salem, was smitten with one of its damsels and married her. The banished wife got tired waiting, hunted up her recreant lord, found him living with the Salem woman, and entered complaint for his arrest. Meantime the man removed to Amherst, when at a religious meeting he confessed his guilt, and added to it by saying, that he was never married to the Salem woman, but had some one perform the ceremony who had no legal right to do so.

AT CANNONSVILLE, Delaware county, N. Y., Mrs. Augustus Flowers sent her two children, aged respectively three and five years, to tell their father to come to dinner. Soon after, the mother was horrified beyond expression to see her husband enter the house bearing the two little ones in his arms, one a lifeless mass of ragged flesh and blood, while the other was senseless from a terrible blow on the head, from the effects of which it died next day. It appears that the children, in going for their father, had to pass through a pasture containing a vicious horse, which attacked them, biting, kicking and stamping the poor unfortunates to death. The father hearing cries of distress, hastened to the tragical scene, but too late to save either of the fated ones.

NOT long since, in the vicinity of Utica, N. Y., a marriage was solemnized, which, for uniqueness of ceremony is submitted as a sample. As the parties to be married entered the parlor arm in arm the clergyman met them midway in the room, when the bridegroom taking the right hand of the bride to be said:

"We have promised to protect each other so long as we live. We intend now to be united and hereafter to live together husband and wife, and we have invited you to be present this evening to sanction our union according to the requirements of custom and the laws."

The clergyman in reply said:

"By the authority I possess as a clergymen, and in the presence of these witnessess I hereby (laying on his hand) recognize you as husband and wife in fulfilment of your promises."

Prayer followed and the ceremony was ended.

AT LYONS, on the New York Central Railroad, Friday evening last, a collision occurred between an express and freight train which is described as "a bid for death put in by the grossest carelessness." The trains pass at Lyons, and the usual custom is for the freight to run upon a side track, allow the express to pass and then follow it. As the express was approaching at slow speed, the engineer saw that the switch was "all right," and opened the throttle valve, but at this moment the switchman, represented to have been intoxicated, rushed up and changed the switch, running the express train, which had begun to move rapidly, upon the side track and into the freight train. The engineer of the express, seeing the danger, reversed his engine and leaped from it, followed by the fireman, thus escaping with their lives. The crash of the colliding trains was terrible, and resulted in the demolition of the engine, tender and baggage car and disabling of every passenger coach, five in number, together with five sleeping cars, which composed the train. The damage to the other train consisted in the smashing of the caboose and two cars filled with sheep, the majority of which were killed. The switchman, to whose criminal carelessness the accident was owing, was obliged to run for his life, threats of lynching being indulged in by the excited and indignant passengers.

STATE ITEMS.

BEDFORD Springs have been closed for the season.

BUTTER is selling in Philadelphia at from 50 to 55 cents a pound by the producers. The "middlemen" charge 75 to 80 cents.

LEWIS HOLSNER, convicted of murder in the second degree, in Huntingdon county, has been sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

THE bones of a human skeleton were found in Clearfield county lately. Upon examination they proved to be those of a Mrs. Burge, who has been missing since the fall of 1866. IN Philadelphia, Monday evening, Emma Smith had some angry words with her lover, Albert Somers, on the street, and drawing a knife, stabbed him in the thigh, inflicting a wound four inches in length, and also cut him in the breast. She accompanied him to the hospital, and exhibited great grief at the occurrence, but when arrested and locked up at the station house said "I guess he was not much hurt."

THE Carlisle Herald says the State Agricultural College "is badly managed and a disgrace to the State," and adds that "the only way to make it, and the Experimental Farms connected with it, succeed, is for the State to organize a Department of Agriculture and to place Hon. Thomas H. Burrows, or some other good man at the head of it, and give him exclusive control of the College and Farms, answerable to the Governor and the Legislature for the manner in which he performs the duties of his office. This thing of managing a great Agricultural Institution through County Agricultural Societies is a grand humbug."

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, averelon to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, Sept. 22, 1869.

The markets generally are fairly active, fully as much so as is usual at this season of the year, and what is better still, the indications at this time are very favorable for a good fall and winter business. As soon as the crops begin to move freely, the country will commence to buy and lay in supplies, and while it is probable that margins, under a strong competition, will be somewhat reduced, there is no doubt but what there will be an increased volume of business.

The commercial circulars from Liverpool, received by the last steamer, generally concur in the statement that, though the cereal crops are very unequal, they will probably not fall sufficiently below the average to make much difference in the current prices of bread and flour. It is rather too early, however, to pronouce a definite judgement.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

PENN'A CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, WEDNESDAY, Sept. 22, 1869.

CATTLE.

The market compared with last week, is hardly as brisk for the common grades, while prime fat cattle have, so far, been in good demand, and sold readily at full prices. The supply although not unusually large, is nevertheless fully up to the demand, and there were more good cattle on sale than last week; as already noted, however, low grade stock would not sell unless low figures were accepted, say 4¼@5 cts. Several good droves changed hands at 7@7¼; prime at 7¼@7¾, and fancy at 8—one New York firm bought 5 car loads of extra Ohio steers at 8, and another New Yorker bought a fairish drove of Kentucky cattle at 7.

As will be seen by reference to the report of sales, there were more cattle sold at from 4@5½ than above, and, of the two, good cattle were the easiest sold.

SHEEP.

With an unusually light supply, and a good shipping demand, the market thus far has been strong, and, compared with last week, prices are a shade higher. We now quote at 3½@4 for fair; 4¼@4¾ for prime, and 5@5¼ for extra, with but very few sales above 5 cents. Some of the Philidelphians were holding back in hopes of increased arrivals and lower prices.

HOGS.

Market moderately active and steady, but without material change, Philadelphia hogs may be quoted at 10⅜@10¾, and Yorkers at 9¼@9¾. The arrivals appear to keep pace with the demand, and this accounts for the uniformity in prices. Stock hogs, of which there are but very few offering, may be quoted at 10@10¼.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly with 25½ inches by the metal marks last evening. There was considerable rain yesterday morning, but unless it is followed by a good deal more, no rise need be expected. Weather continues sultry and unsettled. Mercury 83 in shade; barometer, 58.

The New State from Wheeling arrived and departed. The Belle did not arrive on time having been delayed by low water; she was expected in last night, however, and will depart for Parkersburg at noon to-day.

Capt. Chas. W. Cole's new steamer, Batesville, arrived yesterday, and as soon as she receives her furniture, carpets, &c., &c., will be ready for business, She is 125 feet in length, 26 feet beam, depth of hold, 3½ feet; 2 boilers, 18 feet long and 34 inches in diameter, engines 10 inches in diameter and 3½ feet stroke. She draws but 13 inches, light, and was built for the upper White river trade.

—John Weare, chief engineer of the steamer Creole, was run over by a train on the Pontchartrain Railroad on Saturday, at Milnsburg, which cut both of his legs from his body. The unfortunate man was immediately taken to New Orleans for aid, but it is hardly probably he will recover.

—The C. J. Caffrey, dredging boat on the upper Mississippi, during two months scraped bars 798 times, took out 63 snags, cut 32 impending trees, ran a distance of 1,859 miles. Three weeks of the above time she was necessarily idle, Colonel Long having made her his headquarters at La Cresse while superintending the fitting up the Wisconsin River dredgeboat. The lowest stage of water this season was two feet eight inches on the bars about the first of August, when the rain commenced, and a good boating stage was kept up ever since between St. Paul and Dubuque.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 141.

IT IS NOT all pleasant sailing among the Republicans of this Commonwealth. Their County Committee in Somerset, by an unanimous vote, have requested Mr. STUTZMAN to resign the nomination for State Senator which he holds. What he will do in the premises has not been announced. In Philadelphia, the Evening Telegraph, which has always sustained an excellent reputation for Republicanism, demands the expulsion of STOKES, DAVIS, BUNN, ADAIRE, CLOUD and HONG from the legislative ticket of that county.

THE political "reaction" this year is full of comfort for the opposition. In Maine, on a light vote, their candidate is beaten by only 12,000 majority, while they have actually gained one Senator, electing three of the thirty-one, and will have perhaps thirty-five of the one hundred and fifty representatives. The increased Republican majorities in Colorado and New Mexico are calmly borne, in the consoling reflection that the Congressional delegates thus chosen are to have voices merely, without votes, at Washington. Certainly, a very hopeful reaction!

THE rumor of a large defalcation by the recent management of the Methodist Book Concern, in New York, has been painful to the general public, and quite irrespective of any denominational lines. It was regarded as a sadly convincing proof that no station, no purity of personal profession, was safe from the contagion of the unavoidably prevailing mania of weakness and faithlessness among those holding pecuniary trusts. The public will welcome, therefore, with peculiar pleasure, the semi-official declarations, of a New York journal, that the rumor alluded to has no foundation in fact.

IT SEEMS to be settled that the President will not hurry in selecting a successor to Secretary Rawlins. Two or three journals, inflamed by their suspicions, have sought to create the impression that an exciting contest was progressing as to who the individual should be; but no facts have transpired to warrant that suggestion. So far as is known, the President has been left entirely to his own judgment and preferences, except by the newspapers alluded to. These have been resolved that if they could not dictate who should be appointed, they would occupy a position to claim among the uninitiated that they virtually determined that one person should not.

MR. PACKER, the Democratic nominee for Governor, has been formally charged with evading, although his wealth is reckoned by millions, the payment of his just taxes for the year 1868 and thus far for '69. Since 1867, he has contrived to escape from any State tax whatever, upon his vast wealth. Under this charge, Mr. Packer and his friends would have done better to stand wholly mute, than to attempt, as they now do, to avert the popular contempt by showing that, prior to '67, their candidate did honestly pay his taxes. No question has been raised on that point. What the people wish to know, is, why did he pay $32,000 at Mauch Chunk in '65, and $25,000 in '66, and $14,000 in '67, and only $8.95 in '68? He has certainly not grown poorer in these years. How has his dodge been so successfully contrived as to cut down his payments in those years from $32,000 at home to $8.95 at Philadelphia?

WE ARE not ready to credit the averment that our Minister at Madrid has exceeded his instructions, or to believe that he has given, to a proud and sensitive nation, any just cause for irritation or complaint. His communications to that government may not have been couched in the most obscure verbiage of diplomacy, and he may have expressed the humane sympathies of the American people with a trifle too much of soldierly frankness. It is simply incredible that he has indulged in any menaces, or that he has for a moment forgotten how much was due to the dignity of the power near which he stands, representing the Republic. When his correspondence shall be opened to the judgment of his Government and to the criticism of his countrymen, we have a hearty faith that even those journals which, like the GAZETTE, have faithfully protested against any Cuban embroilment, will find therein nothing to merit a substantial reproof.

WITHIN a day or two past, the press reports two instances where, by the intentional displacement of railway switches, trains have been thrown off the track, and much damage done, fortunately without loss of life. This yields further proof of the need for the exercise of constant vigilance by the companies, in guarding against the malicious mischief with which their property and the public safety is constantly threatened. It proves, moreover, that even the vigilance which the best managed corporations require from their servants does not always suffice to protect their lives from the interference of the evil-disposed. We were told, the other day, by a highly responsible official of one of our most important railways, that he did not dare to let the public know how constantly and fatally the safety of their trains was imperilled by the tampering to which their switches are subjected. Thus far the vigilance of that Company's servants has detected and foiled the meditated crime in every case, but it is apparent to any experienced judgment that no precautions can always avail. Yet the railway companies are expected, and perhaps not unreasonably, to take all the responsibilities for the absolute safety of travelers; insuring them against all casualties, whether originating in the misconduct of their own servants or the malicious interference of outside rascality.

FATHER HYACINTHE, one of the most popular and effective orators of the Roman Catholic Church, and for years the favorite preacher in the gayest metropolis in Christendom, astonishes the world with the announcement that he withdraws from his allegiance to Rome, protesting against the decrees and practices of the church as not according with the principles of christianity. Representing the Gallician church, he rebels against ultramontanism, and leads a new movement which must convulse Catholicism on the European continent. With the religious element of the French people, Father Hyacinthe has for years enjoyed an unexampled influence. Effectively he has been more than Pope, than the Holy Father himself, while his faithful subordination to Rome was never before seriously questioned. This letter of protest is regarded by the French press as a great religious and political secret. This means that the Gallician church revives and strengthens its old demand for ecclesiastical independence of the Romish See, and that the Ecumenical Council, which is to meet at the Vatican, is to be something more than merely an imposing display of dignitaries, since it will now have serious work to do. The text of his letter to his former spiritual superiors specifies, doubtless, the obnoxious practices and decrees against which his solemn protest is aimed. These particulars have not reached us, but it is to be presumed from the language of the French journals that they include equally the doctrines and discipline of Romanism.

THE annexed quotation from the latest published letter of Lady Byron, seems decisively to preclude any continuance of debate upon the accuracy of the recent statements of Mrs. Stowe. These words could not have been written by a woman who knew her husband to have been guilty of the most revolting of crimes. Here is testimony given after the separation and while every incident was fresh in the memory of the wife, who wrote:

"Though he would not suffer me to remain his wife, he cannot prevent me from continuing his friend."

"It is not necessary to speak ill of his heart in general: it is sufficient that to me it was hard and impenetrable. * * I would rather present this as my misfortune than as his guilt; but surely, that misfortune is not to be made my crime."

"I might appeal to all who have ever heard me speak of him, and still more to my own heart, to witness that there has been no moment when I have remembered injury otherwise than affectionately and sorrowfully. It is not my duty to give way to hopeless and wholly unrequited affection; but, so long as I live, my chief struggle will probably be not to remember him too kindly."

And Lord Lindsey adds:

"In the face of the evidence now given, positive, negative and circumstantial, there can be but two alternatives in the case—either Mrs. Stowe must have entirely misunderstood Lady Byron, and been thus led into error and misstatement, or we must conclude that under the presure of a lifelong and secret sorrow, Lady Byron's mind had become clouded with an hallucination in respect of the particular point in question."

NEW TELEGRAPH TARIFF.

The business community will be gratified to learn that the telegraph system is to be more than ever popularized by the Western Union Telegraph Company, whose lines connect together all the principal cities, towns and villages of the country, who propose inaugurating on the first of next month a revised and greatly reduced schedule of the rates of tariff. This is a movement which has been under headway for a long time, but owing to the great and intricate difficulties encountered, the innovation has been necessarily delayed up till the present time, and the public have been deprived of the benefits and advantages of cheap facilities for rapid communications on matters of a business and private nature. When it is asserted that the Western Union Company has during its existence taken and consolidated with at least six large, dominant organizations, and has been constantly engaged in stretching forth its wires to all points of the compass, the reader will realize how tedious and troublesome was the labor of establishing a fair, just and equitable table of tariffs in thousands of offices under the direct charge of its management. The prices were, and at the present time, are, discriminating and in numerous instances perhaps unjust,—a condition of things consequent to a multitude of circumstances and it has been the ambition of the company to so rearrange and adjust their business, as to popularize their wires and establish a uniformity of rates, which would be not only satisfactory to their patrons, but as profitable as those now in vogue.

Some three years ago Messrs. ORTON, MCALPINE, STAGER and LEFFERTS, able and distinguished gentlemen, at the head of the Company, determined on a revision of the rates, and with commendable energy and enterprise commenced the great labor which has just been completed in a highly creditable and satisfactory manner. The basis of calculation for the new arrangement was novel and expedient. Reckoning by an air line from office to office, and computing rates proportionate to the distances so obtained would have been an endless process, and one involving numerous years of time, and yet failed to have furnished the desired equitable result; but out of the ingenuity of the gentlemen charged with the work was born a plan whereby much labor was saved and the rates equitably established. A great map was carefully drawn of the entire territory over which any of the electric wires passed, and the thirty-five hundred or more of the offices were marked in their correct places. The surface of the map was divided into squares of fifty miles, so arranged that all the squares of every alternate row fall in line with each other, with the vertical lines terminating at the centre of the squares above and below them. The tariff was fixed from the centre of each square instead of from offices within it to those outside of it, thus reducing the entries of tariffs very largely. These squares have been provided with tariffs proportionate to their distances from other squares, and, as we have remarked, the new schedule goes into operation on the 1st proximo. Under the new rates we confidently look for a large and increased share of public patronage to be directed towards the Western Union Company which has always displayed commendable energy, enterprise and liberality in acting as the people's faithful agent for the transmission of messages by telegraph.

In order that our readers may judge of the great reduction in tolls to follow the revision of tariff, we annex a few contrasts in the old and new rates, in which the changes are observable, and which afford an idea of the new order of things throughout:

	Present Rate for 10 words.	New Rate from Oct. 1st.
San Francisco, Cal.	$6 75	5 10

Frankfort, N. Y.	1 65	1 01
Geneva, N. Y.	1 45	90
Girard, O.	1 00	65

In the revision the company has taken care that when the new scale inaugurated advances over the present tariff, that there shall be no advance whatever made, but the existing rates shall stand as though no change had been introduced. It will be well to add that the new tariff has been made without any reference to competing or rival lines, the sole object of the company being to make the telegraph popular and to conduce to the general advantage and benefit of the entire public.

The Company is engaged in maturing other plans for increasing the utility of the telegraph and rendering it of greater benefit and service to the public, one of which is for the dispatching of messages which do not require immediate transmission, at greatly reduced rates. On the whole we congratulate the business community, and indeed all who have occasional recourse to the wires, on the very important changes made, and trust that this is but a step towards making thd telegraph as cheap and economical as the mail system for the transmission of friendly greetings or business announcements from one part of the country to the other.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN J. HOUSTON.—The death of this gentleman, on Saturday, at West Philadelphia, and his interment in Woodland Cemetery, on Tuesday last, are announced in the Philadelphia papers. Mr. HOUSTON was from the opening of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad, for ten or more years, in a confidential and important office in the service of that Company.

He resided for some years in this city, and was known to our community for his efficient administration of the freight department of the railroad company, and also for his dignified deportment, for his social amenities, and for his exemplary christian walk and conversation. His death will be lamented by many attached friends in this city.

LIBERAL REPUBLICANISM.

The recent movement of the liberal Republicans of West Virginia was brought to the attention of the President, during his visit at Wheeling, on the 21st, and he was urged to express his opinions thereon. The Intelligencer says:

The President thought the policy advocated was "right and proper." He thought discriminations on account of participation in the rebellion should now cease, and referred to the fact that, acting upon this idea, he had "afforded the people of Virginia and Mississippi an opportunity to throw overboard the obnoxious clauses of their constitutions" enforcing such discrimination. He said care should be taken to avoid division among the Republicans such as had happened in Tennessee; but he thought the ideas advocated in the Wheeling address were "about right." Being asked if he had any objection to having his approval of those ideas made known, he replied that it would be improper for him to interfere in any way in our local politics; and he did not want to be mixed up with them. But this expression of his views having been thus drawn from him without the slightest idea on his part of interfering or volunteering advice, we feel that there can be no impropriety in stating the main point of the conversation as we have done, viz: That President Grant's attention has already been attracted to the Liberal Republican Movement in this State, and that he regards it with decided favor, as being in consonance with his own ideas and official acts; and that while he counsels the utmost caution to avoid a division among us, he would gladly see the Republicans of the State united on such a platform as that embodied in the Wheeling Address.

We have more than once spoken of this movement to abrogate the existing restrictions upon the suffrage in that State, not hesitating to express our hearty concurrence in the policy, and our sincere wishes for its success. Herein, the Republican press of the country generally has agreed with us. It is gratifying to find that the same opinions are shared by the Administration, as well as to perceive the significance with which our friends in West Virginia are admonished of the single peril against which they have to guard. Their hands will be strengthened, as their policy is sustained, by the personal endorsement of General GRANT, and we shall look with confidence to a very general acceptance of the Wheeling platform by the entire party of the State.

MINOR TOPICS.

WHEN Americans have been abroad they generally come home quite indignant at the lack of intelligence and knowledge of American affairs in foreigners. Some lay the blame of this upon the national stupidity which the unfortunate Europeans must imbibe with the air they breathe, while others charge it all to the short-sighted and oppressive rule of the "effete sovereigns" of that Continent, who dread the effects of a full knowledge of America, and American affairs, upon their degraded subjects. Now, we do not propose to choose between these two excellent reasons, but we should like to know which, if either, is responsible for the ignorance concerning European affairs in this country. About England we do know a little, but of France, Italy, Russia and Germany we are as ignorant as any of the partially educated inhabitants of those lands are of us. If a Senator of the United States were to visit Paris, he would, in all likelihood, be disgusted at the discovery that his fame—unless he were a man of the stamp of a Sumner or a Fessenden—had not reached so far, and yet he would have to confess a total ignorance of even the names of men filling perhaps higher positions in that country. Of all the members of the newly appointed cabinet in Paris, how many had ever been heard of before on this side of the world? How many of the leading Ministers of Austria are known of here, excepting Von Beust, who himself sprung into their notice only in 1866, although for many years he had been Premier of Saxony, and was regarded by the South Germans as their only hope against the machinations of Bismarck? How much do we know concerning the colonial governors of England, excepting those of Canada and India? Yet, if one of our State Governors, men of less power and influence, finds himself unknown abroad he is pretty sure to base upon it a charge of ignorance against the Europeans. Again we refuse to choose between the two excellent reasons for their lack of knowledge given above, but shall leave it to others to decide.

WE SEE a paragraph "going the rounds" of the press concerning an engineer of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, representing him as discovering a locomotive without an engineer approaching his train at full speed, as having whistled "down brakes" on his train, and as sending his fireman back to uncouple the tender at the rear, while he himself severed the connection with the engine, and then jumping on the tender, with his red flag, watched "the two engines dash toward each other like very demons," both being thrown from the track and demolished by the collision. He next ran to meet the express going east, which was just two minutes behind time, barely sufficient to enable him to "flag it" and bring it to a full stop within twenty feet of the wrecked engines. For this heroic act, it is further stated, the company presented the engineer "with a check for one thousand dollars." This certainly was a "heroic act," and the reward not more than adequate. But—we should like to know the name and residence of the hero, that we might do our share in handing him down to posterity.

THE Capital, it seems, is to be removed; at least many people say so. St. Louis claims it, Chicago says that if moved at all it must go to New York or Chicago, and Train, having land for sale, gently shrieks Omaha. It would need a good deal of pretty convincing logic to induce persons generally to agree that the Capital needs moving at all. Some say the movement is being engineered by the Democrats, who do not intend to allow it to culminate until they again hold the reins of government, when they will be able to satisfy a very hungry crowd with the most gigantic job yet dreamed of. St. Louis is not the healthiest locality and but little pleaanter than Washington, and the sum paid as mileage to Congressmen now would be no whit less if that were the seat of Government. New York is as far from central as any of our large cities, excepting the "Hub," nor have the purity and excellence of her city Government induced us to desire to trust her with anything more than we can help. As to Chicago—nobody but a Chicagoose would think of such a thing; uncentral, unstable, unreliable, naturally, Chicago is a sort of George Francis Train among cities. We do not believe that the Capital will be moved at all: but in case it shall be, then we are in favor of finding the geographical centre between Mexico, British America and the two oceans, and there locating a town and building the Capital.

THE London papers constantly praise Mr. John S. Clarke's performances of Babington Jones and Toodles. The Court Journal, in a long notice says: "This popular American actor was very successful in both pieces, and the warmth of his reception ought to do much to soften the asperities of the Alabama difficulty."

Just such ridiculous paragraphs as this are quite common now in some journals on both sides of the Atlantic; to us it would seem just as sensible to say that the warmth of the English rose-blankets which we use ought to soften the asperity of the Alabama question. Blankets are good things, and we pay good prices for them to the producers. Mr. Cooke's acting is a good thing, and if the English people have the good taste to appreciate it, we can see no reason why we as Americans should feel as if a favor had been done us. The Alabama question is purely one of international law and comity involved in a diplomatic labyrinth, and as such cannot reasonably be affected by either good acting or good blankets. We send England many good actors, she sends us many poor ones and much good manufactured ware, but the Alabama question still remains unsettled, and its asperities, so far as we can see, hang on a different set of hooks entirely from these other articles.

SOME MONTHS ago we gave our ideas concerning funerals as they now are and as they should be. The New York Commercial Advertiser has now taken up the same question and is handling it in a different light. We objected to the barbaric show and glitter, to the heartlessness and unfeelingness of the present requirements of society, and to the expense. The New York editor treats of the expense alone. He says

The desire for displays on funeral occasions keeps pace with the passion for costly weddings. Years ago, a simple coffin, followed by a few carriages, was regarded as sufficient for displaying proper respect for the dead. Now, costly shrouds, the most expensive coffins, and long trains of carriages are looked upon as essential.

The Advertiser then treats of the folly of this, and of the exhorbitance of undertakers in a very forcible style, but not sufficiently so to frighten us from treating some day upon the same text.

The President at Washington.

A letter of the 20th, from Washington says:

The President still tarries in our midst. The people are delighted. They are making good use of their distinguished guest's presence. He is very amiable and obliging; does all he can to make his stay among us yield us as much pleasure as possible. He seems willing to do anything we ask him—anything within the bounds of reason, save make a speech. That he will not do.

On Saturday the corner stone of our new Town Hall was laid. A large concourse of people was assembled. The band discoursed music; prayer was offered by Rev. W. A. Davidson; an address delivered by J. F. Patterson, Esq., and then a box containing sundry things was deposited in the corner stone by the hands of the President. This done he was conducted into the Court House, where many hundreds of our citizens had the privilege of shaking his hand. And what a shaking it was; old and young, rich and poor, white and black, Republicans and Democrats had a hand in it. To them it seemed a great pleasure; to the President hard work. Poor man; he is to be pitied; to be belabored everlastingly must be an intolerable bore. It is well he has patience and endurance in an eminent degree. Aside, however, from the two instances I have mentioned, he has had comparative quiet. This, he says, he covets and enjoys. He expresses himself greatly pleased with our place. This nation is largely indebted to him; let its prayers be offered in his behalf; he deserves well at the hands of this whole people.

STATE POLITICS.

D. M. PAINTER is chairman of the Republican County Committee in Huntingdon.

THERE is a breach in the Republican party in Huntingdon county and the copperheads are smiling.

IT HAS been charged that Pennsylvania clerks in the Departments have been assessed to defray campaign expenses, but the officers of the Pennsylvania Republican Association deny the charge.

A NEW paper has been started in Huntingdon, called the Republican, and published by Theo. H. Cremer, a defeated candidate for the nomination of Prothonotary. If the paper were started in good faith as an advocate of Republican principles, we would wish it well, but as it opposes a portion of the regularly nominated ticket, we would advise Republicans to have nothing to do with it.—Hollidaysburg Register.

THE State Central Committee has made arrangements for the following mass-meetings and speakers: On the 23d inst., Apollo, Armstrong county, Governor Geary and Hon. Mahlon Chance; 24th, the same speakers at Butler; 27th, General Harry White at Monongahela City, 28th, Hon. G. W. Schofield at Tionesta, Forrest county; General Harry White at Washington, and Hon. John Scott at Coudersport, Potter county; 29th, Hon. John Scott at Smethport, M'Kean county, and Governor Geary at Clearfield. October 4th Hon. John Scott, Hon G. A. Grow and H. Bucher Swope, Esq., at Pittsburgh, and Governor Geary at Parker's Landing, Venango county; Oct 5th, Hon. John Scott, Hon. G. A. Grow and H. Bucher Swope, Esq., at Beaver in the afternoon and New Brighton in the evening, and Governor Geary at Oil City; 6th, Governor Geary at Titusville, and Messrs. Scott and Swope at New Castle; these gentlemen are to speak at West Greenville, Mercer county, on the 7th, upon which day Mr. Grow is to speak at Kittanning; 8th, Governor Geary and Messrs. Scott and Swope at Meadville; on the 9th these same gentlemen, joined by Mr. Grow, are to speak at Erie and at Corry.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

A DEFENSIVE MEDICINE.

"In time of peace prepare for war," is a sound military maxim. "Let not the sickly season find you unprepared," is an equally good rule in medical jurisprudence. The man must be made of iron who finds himself at the close of summer as strong as at its commencement. Such a phenomenon is rare, even among the most robust of the human family. Muscular and constitutional vigor oozes out of us in the broiling weather of July and August, and few of us, at the opening of the Fall, are in the best possible condition to defy the unhealthy influences of the season.

Fever and ague and bilious remittent fevers, together with a variety of complaints that affect the digestive organs, the liver and the bowels, form a portion of the autumn programme. Bear in mind that exhaustion invites these disorders, and that staminal vigor enables the system to repel them. "To be weak is to be miserable," says Satan to his defeated legions, in 'Paradise Lost,'" and the axiom is correct, though it comes from an evil source.

Ho! then, ye weak and feeble, fortify yourselves against the invisible enemy that invades the Autumnal air: The best defence against miasma is a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This rare vegetable tonic will improve your appetite, stimulate your digestion, give firmness to your nerves, invigorate your muscular fibre, regulate your secretions, cheer your spirits, and put your entire physique in perfect working order. It is easily done. The standard tonic and alterative which will recuperate and build you up, is not "bad to take," but, on the contrary, a pleasant medicine.

See, however, that you have the genuine article. There are imitations and counterfeits in the market, and they are all worthless or deleterious. Bear in mind that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold only in glass, (never by the gallon or cask), and that each bottle bears a label surmounted by a vignette of St. George and the Dragon, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, Sept. 22, 1869.

The Government bond market was very dull to-day, and declined from one-half to three-fourths per cent, and closed weak and heavy.

Gold was weak and dull at 137½, when suddenly the market run up to 141½, closing strong at that, with a fair prospect to be run up to 150, unless the Treasury should begin to sell or anticipate the November interest. There are also several millions of gold on the way here from Europe, to arrive on Friday and Saturday, but in the meantime the market may be run up high.

Stocks are dull, heavy and declining. The greatest falling off was in New York Central, and all the watered shares. Ohio and Mississippi is steady at 31, Reading at 94, but Lake Shore and North West is weak at a decline of three per cent. Express stocks are heavy; American and Merchants Union declined to-day to 33¼; this stock was firmly held at 37½ for several weeks, but had to give way under a stringeat money market.

In local securities, bank stocks are the favorite. Valley bonds inquired for at 85, are now offered at 85 and dull at that.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, September 22, 1869.

The scenes and excitement on Stock Exchange and in Gold Room to-day bring vividly to the minds of old speculators the stirring times in Wall street during the palmy days of the rebellion. In the morning the chief events were the panic in railway shares. The depression in Governments, the demoralization of foreign exchange, the stringency in money and the great strength of the gold market amid the surrounding depression was the principal centre of attraction. Early in the day the lower hall of Stock Exchange, presented a tumultuous assembly of excited and anxious brokers yelling in the most frantic manner, all eager to sell stocks and save themselves from being wiped out along with their customers' margins. The slaughter of the public by the large decline of to-day was great and has completely wiped from the surface of Wall street an army of small speculators on the "bull" side of the market. As the day wore along the excitement and activity in the stock market died out, and a comparative quiet and dulness reigned in the Stock Exchange. Throughout the afternoon the market in long room experienced fitful rallies, and therewas a considerable recover from the lowest point of the morning, more especially in Vanderbilt stocks, but an unsettled feeling prevailed and purchases were large to recover short contracts. the bull element being severely crippled by heavy losses consequent upon the decline of the past few days. Brokers are beginning to be alarmed for their remaining margins, and as to the difficulty of carrying stocks, in view of the money stringency and decreasing want of confidence in the afternoon, the excitement was transferred to the gold room, and here occurred scenes which rivaled those consequent on the recent illness of the Emperor Napoleon. In the morning the panic in the Stock Exchange induced a perfect flood of short sales, this only caused a decline of ⅛ to ¼ per cent. After the "bears" stopped selling the market was firm and recovered the decline, where it remained until afternoon. The extraordinary firmness of gold premiums in the face of enormous short sales of the morning, and the panic on Stock Exchange alarmed some of the prominent "bears," who began to cover their short contracts, when the market fairly bounded upwards. The impetus given to the market, by an attempt of some of the "bears" to cover, started upward in movement with such rapidity that the crowd of brokers and speculators rushing into the Gold Room soon jammed the Booth room itself and the passages leading to it with a frantic crowd almost breathless with anxiety. The price advanced sharply from 37½ to 40½, and at the latter price, bids were on the floor at one time for $16,000,000 of gold. The excitement was increased by a report that Sickles had presented an ultimatum to the Spanish Government on the Cuban question.

In the money market there was a stringency equal to anything ever known in Wall street. 7 per cent. gold was the usual rate. There was a large and excited crowd in front of the Stock Exchange engaged in buying and selling money in shape of turning stocks. The rates paid were ¼ to ½ per cent. on the general run of stocks, but on the high priced stocks one per cent. was the rate. There is a complete stand still in the discount market and it is next to an impossibility for merchants to obtain money.

Sterling dull, heavy and most unsaleable at 6½@7½. Commercial bills 5. Gold buoyant and excited; opened at 37¾, fell to 37½ and advanced to 141½, closing at 141. Carrying rate 7 per cent. for gold, and 1 32@¼ per cent. Clearances, $98,000,090. The upward movement was assisted by reports founded on private dispatches to the effect that negotiations between this country and Spain in regard to Cuba are likely to result in hostilities; also that Gen. Sickles has demanded his passports.

The Sub-Treasurer bought $2,000,000 in 5 20s to-day at 116 62-100@117.

The stock market has bordered closely upon the panic; New York Central fell from 198½ to 175, and Hudson from 175 to 165, which produced a very excited feeling on Stock Exchange, which was intensified by a difficulty in borrowing on the speculative stocks. The immediate cause of the fall was the report that an injunction had been issued, at the instance of a small stockholder in Hudson River, by one of the city Judges to restrain the New York Central directors from consolidating with the Hudson River. The panic made less havoc with the remainder of the list, although the prices of the morning are the lowest yet touched since the present downward speculation began. The only exception to this remark is Pacific Mail, which is comparatively steady, having ranged between 76 and 74½. In the afternoon there was a steadier feeling and stocks rose nearly as rapidly as they fell. During the early hours of the day New York Central sold at 159, buyer three, and Hudson River at 73. Later the market became unsettled and New York Central fell to 187, rising once more to 190 and finally closing at 184; the rest of the market sympathized with the fluctuations of the Central. Market closed unsettled and feverish. The Post hears on good authority that the meeting of the Directors of the New York Central was duly held to-day, and the consolidation resolutions were passed, although no particulars concerning the terms of consolidation have yet been made public.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, Sept. 22, 1869.

The oil market was moderately active to-day, though weak and decidedly "bearish," and compared with yesterday, prices are a shade lower. There seems to be no special cause assigned for the reaction, but that there is a reaction compared with last week, is beyond dispute, and as might be expected, the bears are very much elated about it. There is no telling, however, what a day may bring forth, and the "bulls" still entertain hopes that the market will soon react in their favor, and that prices will again improve.

CRUDE.

Sales 3,000 seller September at 14¾; 500 seller 30 days at 14¾; 1,000 each October to December at 14¾; 1,000 each September to December at 14¾; 1,000 spot 14¾; 1,000 do at 14½; and 2,000 buyer all year, on upper creek, at $5,30 —considered equivalent to 14¾ here. At the close, October to December was offered at 14½@14⅝; seller all year at 14¼; and buyer all year at 15.

REFINED.

But two sales reported 1,500 September at 32; and 500 October at 32¼. From the above it will be seen that, compared with yesterday, are off about a quarter and even at the reduction, there did not appear to be many buyers. Lines for September or October to December quoted at 32¼.

GRAND RAPIDS AND INDIANA RAILROAD.

This enterprise has already attracted considerable attention in this vicinity, and has enlisted Pittsburgh capital and Pittsburgh enterprise in its completion. The citizens of the region traversed by the road are looking with no little interest to its ultimate completion to open to them the rich stores of our manufactures as an interchange with their agricultural products, their extensive forests, their mines of gypsum, iron, copper, &c.

The connection of the railroad under review with the State of Indiana, via the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad is well known. The State of Michigan is less known and understood by our citizens.

MICHIGAN.

This railroad enters Michigan near Sturgis, in St. Joseph county, and passes through the village and across the prairie known as Sturgis. Probably no State in the Union contains a smaller proportion of the foreign element in its rural population. It is claimed that the State is mainly settled by immigration from New York and from the New England States, and the taste displayed in their public and private buildings and their general enterprise and energy show that they are possessed of intelligence and refinement unsurpassed in the same area elsewhere in the country. One feature which creates a favorable impression upon the stranger, are the long lines of shade trees upon the common roads. In some cases the native trees have been left for that purpose and in others they have been transplanted, the State making a suitable deduction from the taxes of every one who plants a tree or trees upon the roadside.

STURGIS.

This villags is 56 miles North from Ft. Wayne, located upon Sturgis Prairie, and contains some three thousand inhabitants. John Sturgis, from whom the village, town and prairie takes its name, was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and has recorded that fact upon an immense flag stone in front of a hotel owned by him. The Michigan Southern Railroad passes through the town, and there is a large business transacted with the surrounding country in merchandise and there are a few manufactories here also. Like many other towns upon the route, the citizens are expecting a new impetus to manufacturing and other enterprises upon the opening up to them of the markets of Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, &c., by the completion of this road. The offices of the railroad were at one time located here—Jonathan G. Wait, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Sturgis Journal, having been for many years a Director of the road and at one time, its Secretary. William Allman, Esq., who resides here, also filled the office of Secretary, and Richard Reed, Esq., President of the First National Bank at this place, was formerly Treasurer of the Company. General Stoughton, member of Congress, and Major McLaughlin, at one time resident engineer on the road, reside in Sturgis. These gentlemen are all identified with the history of the enterprise, some of them from its inception, and Mr. Reed has on several occasions made liberal advances to sustain its fortunes when they needed such aid.

Immediately North from Sturgis the railroad passes over a range of hills rising up from the prairies with which they are surrounded and make a marked feature in the landscape. We now arrive at the fields of peppermint for which this, St. Joseph, county is celebrated. The rich soil of the upland "openings" is said to be well adapted for its culture, and the farmers devote many large fields to that shrub, distilling many pounds of "oil peppermint," and it is said to be a profitable crop.

NOTTAWA.

Seven miles north from Sturgis is the village of Nottawa, which is one of those towns which it is expected will possess considerable importance upon the completion of the railroad; two miles further northward the "Michigan Air-Line" railroad is crossed, a road designed to shorten the distance between Detroit and Chicago upon the Michigan Central railroad by cutting off a detour made by the latter to the northward, to reach the villages of Jackson, Marshall, Kalamazoo, &c.

NOTTAWA PRAIRIE.

Michigan abounds, as is well known, with prairies limited in extent as compared with those vast tracts in Illinois and other western States, but equally rich in soil and susceptible of raising winter wheat, fruit and other crops which fail further west. Amongst the richest in soil and most picturesque in appearance, is Nottawa Prairie, in St. Joseph county. On the north it is bounded by the St. Joseph river, the luxuriant foliage of the forest trees upon the banks, forming a relief to the otherwise somewhat monotonous landscape of the prairie. P. Marantette, Esq., was the pioneer in this vicinity, and now cultivates a splendid farm on the northern portion of the prairie, with a most beautiful residence upon the banks of the St. Joseph. His first experience was with the uncivilized native Indians, who were at that time the sole inhabitants. He is now surrounded by a numerous population, with all the comforts and refinements of the oldest settled portions of the country—no traces of its former occupants remaining. Mr. Marantette has been a member of the State Legislature and a director of this railroad.

MENDON

Is situated just across the St. Joseph from the estate of Mr. Marantette, and is fifteen miles north from Sturgis. It contains about fifteen hundred inhabitants and a fine water power. The surrounding country is well settled and very productive. Mendon will be an important point upon the line of the railroad.

VICKSBURG

Contains about one thousand inhabitants and is twelve miles northwestwardly from Mendon and about thirteen miles south of Kalamazoo. The country about Vicksburg is rich and highly cultivated. Schoolcraft Prairie and Prairie Ronde are to the westward of this point, and that region of country will be tributary to this road at that point. Six miles to the northward from Vicksburg we pass "Austin's Lake," a beautiful sheet of water, with an excursion steamer and other attractions for visitors as a place of resort.

KALMAZOO.

This is one of the most delightful villages in the country. It is situated upon the Michigan Central Railroad, and contains about twelve thousand inhabitants. It is located on the Kalamazoo river and is surrounded by an amphitheatre of hills, which add much to its beauty. The streets are broad and well shaded with trees, and a large square surrounded with fine residences, are amongst its attractive features. The State Lunatic Asylum is located here. It has a fine race track, somewhat noted as the place where Flora Temple, "the Queen of the turf," was the first in trotting annals to achieve a mile in harness in less than 2:20. Many of the stores and other buildings are constructed with "Milwaukee brick," several beds of clay being found upon the eastern side of Lake Michigan, which produce the cream colored brick. They are about to add greatly to the water power of the river at this point, by the construction of a race beginning some three miles above, which will give a fall of some eighteen or twenty feet. Beside the Michigan Central Railroad, there is already a railroad, via Allegan &c., to Grand Rapids, and another southward, connecting with the Michigan Southern at White Pigeon. The Kalamazoo and South Haven Railroad, connecting Kalamazoo with Lake Michigan, only forty miles distant, is in progress of construction, and one half will be completed in November.

At Kalamazoo resides Joseph Lomax, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Kalamazoo Democrat and the first President of the railroad. James A. Walter, Esq., Post Master at this place and President of the Kalamazoo and South Haven Railroad, is also a director in this railroad. Israel Kellogg, Esq., and others interested in this improvement are residents of Kalamazoo.

Eleven miles to the northward from Kalamazoo, near the village of Plainwell on Gun river, the road crosses the Kalamazoo, Allegan and Grand Rapids Railroad, which bears off to the westward, while the Grand Rapids and Indiana road continues almost due north, passing the villages of Martin's Corners, Whitney, &c.

WAYLAND.

This village contains about one thousand inhabitants, and is situated twenty-six miles north from Kalamazoo. W. White, Esq., formerly sheriff of Allegan county, and his son, W. H. White, are actively interested in this improvement, and reside at Wayland. The region north from Wayland to Grand Rapids passes through a fine farming region, the land being known as the "heavy timbered," producing beech, maple, elm, &c. Near Grand Rapids it strikes the renowned "plaster beds"—mines or quarries of gypsum, these beds are of great extent, and besides proving a source of wealth to this region. The transportation of gypsum, as well as the calcined plaster, will be a source of great revenue to the railroad. Messrs. White and Godfrey are proprietors of extensive beds of gypsum which are upon the line of this road at Grand Rapids. They are also deeply interested in the railroad.

GRAND RAPIDS.

This city is situated upon the Grand River, thirty miles east from its entrance to Lake Michigan at Grand Haven. The Grand River is navigable to this place, where it is obstructed by a succession of falls, which gives the place about as much water-power as can be utilized for many years, if not for all time. The Detroit and Milwaukee railroad crosses the Grand Rapids and Indiana at this place. The town is quite pleasantly located, the river running through a valley with ample room on each bank for manufacturing and business purposes, while a rise of ground back from the river on the left bank, furnishes space for private residences, churches, etc. Already this elevation is improved by the citizens who have houses, all of them neat and pleasing to the eye and some of them elegant. The most conspicuous structure which strikes the eye of the stranger on entering this town is the "Union School House," one of those beautiful edifices for learning for which this State is noted. It stands like a beacon to assure all who see it that the future is to be provided for, by the education of the youth. The most common building material is the cream colored "Milwaukee" brick, and some of their churches, stores and other buildings would adorn any city. One block of stores has a front of Gypsum, the beautifully variegated surface of which would make the most ornamental building material in the world, if it was sufficiently durable. The Superintendent of the railroad and assistant to the Chief Engineer, Mr. J. L. Shaw, has his office at this place. The Land Office of the Company, presided over by the Hon. Wm. A. Howard, is also located here.

A description of the munificent land grant by the Government to this road and of the country to the north of Grand Rapids will form the subject of the next communication. D. H. W.

THE AGGREGATE MEMBERSHIP of the various branches of the Order of Odd Fellows in all parts of the world is considerably over 1,000,000. In Great Britain alone there are more than 500,000 Odd Fellows. The Encampment Branch of the Order in this country is exceedingly prosperous. This is usually denominated the "Patriarchal Branch," and is the highest department of the institution, working entirely separate from the Lodge Branch. There are thirty-two State Grand Encampments and nine hundred subordinate encampments, with a total membership of upward of 50,000. Leaving out the work of the first ten years on this continent, the official records state that up to July, 1869, the number initiated into the order was 660,843. The aggregate revenue received for all purposes reported foots up $39,552,824; number of members relieved, 526,579; number of widowed families relieved, 62,503; total amount of relief paid, $14,189,402. The greatest number of persons initiated in any one year was in the last fiscal year, ending the 1st of July, 1869, being 40,737; evincing that the Order is not only maintaining its numerical strength, but increasing in larger ratio than at any previous time,

THE story of somebody having been poisoned by a tomato worm has been contradicted, and the worm said to be harmless and without sting. The Wheeling Intelligencer is informed, however, that a German woman, residing near Martinsville, while picking tomatos recently, found one of these large worms, and after shaking it from the vine to the ground, picked up a clod to kill it. In so doing, a portion of the worm struck her on the chin and lower lip, which has become much swollen, and is besides very painful.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver Compiaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lugs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 245 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

Disorderly.—Justice Barker issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Francis Hogel, on a charge of disorderly conduct, on oath of C. Q Perkins, a conductor on the Birmingham Passenger Railway.

Daddy and Freddy Diehl turned up at the Allegheny Mayor's office yesterday morning, and were furnished with free passes to the County jail. They have the privilege of remaining there thirty days.

Postponed.—The billiard match which was to have been played to day at the Grant House Billiard Parlor, Allegheny, between Harry Warren and Mr. Dodds, for the championship of Western Pennsylvania and one hundred dollars, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the illness of Mr. Warren.

Cross Suits.—Patrick Pendegrast made information yesterday, before Justice Barker, charging Martin Duffy with having committed an assault upon him, by throwing clubs at him. Mrs. Catharine Pendegrast appeared at the same time and place and charged Duffy with assault and battery. Duffy, in retaliation, made information charging Patrick Pendegrast with assault and battery. The parties were arrested and held for a hearing.

Held for a Hearing.—Dr. Riddle made information yesterday before the Mayor yesterday charging William Gormly with assault and battery. It appears that the Doctor was driving along a street upon which Gormly was working, and the latter refused to let him pass. The Doctor insisted, and in attempting to pass was assaulted by Gormly, who struck him on the head. The accused was arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

Assault and Battery.—George Knockel made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Fred. Pfor with assault and battery. The parties reside in Reserve township and it appears got into a dispute concerning the difficulty which occured on the Irwin farm, a short time since, when it is alleged the accused struck the prosecutor on the head with an iron bar. Pfor was arrested and after a hearing was heid to bail for his appearance at Court.

Raid on a Bee Hive.—Yesterday morning, at an early hour, the Allegheny police made a raid on a disorderly house, known as the "Bee Hive," on Hemlock street, Third ward. They succeeded in capturing two men and three women, who were locked up until a hearing was had before the Mayor, when they were consigned to the care of Warden Scandrott, at the county jail, for thirty days oach. The Work House looms up pleasantly before them.

Aldermanic.—Our old and valued friend Col. J. D. Egan, of the Third ward, is an aspirant for the nomination of Alderman of that ward by the Republicans at the primary meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon between five and seven o'clock. Should he be elected he will make an efficient and capable officer, and one conspicuous for honesty and integrity. He is worthy the support and confidence of all good Republicans, and doubtless will receive a large vote.

Literary Entertainment.—A grand Musical and Literary entertainment will be given by the Allegheny Quartette Club and the Hanna Literary Society, at Masonic Hall, this evening, for the benefit of the Webster avenue Mission Sabbath School. The programme is unusually interesting and we can promise for all who attend a very pleasant and exceedingly enjoyable evening. Cards of admission may be procured at the door. We hope there will be a large attendance.

Burglary.—Samuel Warren, a merchant doing business at No. 216 Wylie street, yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Samuel Mattis and Samuel Pilgrim with burglary. He alleges that his place of business was entered on Friday night, the 17th inst., and forty dollars in cash, a bundle of keys and a dirk knife stolen. The knife and keys, it is alleged, were found in the possession of the accused, who are at present in jail, on a charge of burglary made by Mr. Roth, and a commitment will be lodged against them in the present case.

Sad Result.

Some few weeks ago our readers were made acquainted with the circumstances of a distressing case of insanity of a mother, Mrs. Fisher, residing in the Third Ward, Allegheny, being the victim, and the cause the disappearance of her son, a youth about fifteen years of age. The lad, it appears, left home because of some parental restraint, and has never been heard of since, though the most diligent inquiries in all directions have been made. After the mother had been taken to Dixmont, which was found to be necessary, officer Shaffer, of Allegheny, went in search of the boy, and visited several towns below Pittsburgh, where he was supposed to be, but without getting any trace of the missing one. The unfortunate woman began to fail rapidly in health after being placed in the asylum, notwithstanding every medical aid, and at last it was determined to bring her home. This was done on Tuesday last, but her strength had so far failed that it was found impossible to cause her to rally, and the same evening she sank into a deep sleep from which she never wakened. The affair is an exceedingly distressing one, and has brought great grief in a hitherto happy household. It is thought the boy has met with some accident, as he has been advertised for, and could hardly fail, when apprised of the condition his mother, to return, if at all possible. She will be buried to-day.

FIRE AT THE "STANDARD."

Explosion and Fire Yesterday Morning —Standard Oil Refinery Partially Destroyed—Estimated Loss $15,000 —Several Men Seriously Injured.

Yesterday morning a fire broke out at the Standard Oil Works, which for a time threatened to furnish a parallel to the extensive conflagration at Forsythe's Works in that vicinity a short time since. The first intimation of the fire was conveyed to the city by an alarm struck at twenty minutes past eight o'clock from box 84, corner of Butler and Thirty-eighth streets. The engines in the district started out, and in about twenty-five minutes the others were called by a general alarm. The excitement in the city by this time became very great, and was further increased by rumors that the Standard Oil Works were ablaze, nine men had been seriously burned, and the fire was burning furiously, the firemen being totally unable to check in the least the progress of the flames.

THE SITUATION.

The Standard Oil Works are among the largest and best in the country and at present are owned and operated by a stock company of which James A. Hutchison, Esq., is President. They are situated about a mile above the Allegheny cemetery, and extend from the Allegheny river to Butler street, with the Allegheny Valley Railroad running through the premises. Connected with the distilling deparment, where the fire occurred, are five stills running back in a line with the railroad, four of which are under roof. The fifth still, built in the open air, is capable of holding one thousand barrels of crude oil and had nearly that amount in it yesterday morning. The works were in full operation and everything apparently in proper order when a loud report was heard, followed by two others and a shower of hot burning oil, which proceeded from still No. 5. Immediately that part of the establishment was ablaze and the work of destruction began.

THE FIRE AND VICTIMS.

Next the large still on fire was a new one in course of erection, which would have been ready for use in about two weeks. It was propped up on pillars, and the foundation of stone part of which had been built. At the time of the explosion a number of men and boys employed by A. Stettler & Son, builders, were working about the still three of them being inside and the others on top.

Before they had time to get away or even apprehended danger, the burning oil came down upon those on the outside, burning them very badly and inflicting very serious injuries. They were first removed to a place of safety and medical attention procured, when attention was again directed to the fire, which by this time was burning furiously.

An examination revealed the fact that the roof of No. Five, concave in shape, had been blown half off, which allowed the blaze to reach the oil contained in it —nearly one thousand barrels. The oil in this still continued to burn for some time, the heat from the fiery furnace being intense, and in a short time igniting the wood work of the condensing tanks in the vicinity and the wooden supports of the new still. These were quickly in flames and added to the heat, which rendered work in the vicinity almost impossible, and considerably detracted from the efforts of the firemen and others who sought to check the conflagration. The fire continued to burn for about three hours, consuming everything within reach, when the heat began to tell on a still located in the still house some distance from the burning still, but in a line with it. This still at the time had about five hundred barrels of oil in it, and exhibited evidences of weakness at the "man head," where the oil came dripping out slowly. This was soon in a blaze and shot up a flame to the roof, which so alarmed the workmen that another alarm was sounded. By great exertions, however a section of hose was secured in such a position that a stream of water could be kept playing on the "man head." By this means the rivets were kept from melting and the still was saved. Had it once caught the whole works would inevitably have been destroyed as there were three other tanks within a very few feet of it, and all full of oil. The danger of an explosion at this time was very great but fortunately it was arrested.

The oil in the large still continued to burn, and when the fire had been checked in other quarters somewhat, an attempt was made to secure some of it. The still was tapped at the base and pipes run from it to a large wooden tank a short distance away, but out of danger. By this means a portion, but only a small portion, of the oil was saved. The fire continued to burn all day and was still smouldering when our reporter left the ground at six o'clock last evening. No fears, however, were entertained of any further damage, as it had consumed about all that came within reach.

THE LOSS.

Upon summing up it was discovered that one still containing about one thousand barrels of oil had been destroyed, together with one condensing tank, a small coal-tar tank and a lot of barrels which had been laying near still No. 5. The damage to the building was considerable and will necessitate an entire reconstruction of that part of the works. The new tank will also have to be rebuilt as it was twisted out of shape by the burning of the props sustaining it on one side. A coal railway running parallel with the stills for supplying coal to the furnaces was also destroyed, with a large stock of coal in the yard. Altogether the loss is estimated at about $15,000, upon which there is no insurance.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

There are many suppositions for the origin of the fire, but nothing is known as a certainty beyond the explosion. About three weeks ago the still broke down and a slight fire ensued, but it was fortunately checked before material damage had been done. It was then repaired and put in use again. The most probable supposition is that the still was worn out and not fit for the work, it having been in use since the establishment of the works some years ago. It is said the still commenced to leak yesterday morning, and the oil dropping into the furnace caused the conflagration.

THE INJURED.

Seven persons were engaged about the new still at the time of the explosion, all of whom suffered to some extent. The most seriously injured were, Henry Hinkle, residing at 126 South Canal street Allegheny, burned about the head, and Philip Bender, East Liberty, burned on the arms face and back very badly. He has a wife and five children. It is feared his injuries may result fatally. The others, Miles Stettler, a member of the firm erecting the new still, residing in Manchester, Jacob Walraith, Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny. William Brant, Manchester, James Megraw, Nineteenth street, John Weisman, Thirteenth ward, are all slightly injured. They were all able to go home without assistance. Dr. Hanna, of Lawrenceville, rendered all the medical attention possible in the case.

INCIDENTS.

But one of the engines could get into service at one time, owing to the scarcity of water. The water was pumped from the river by a small engine connected with the works, into a tank from whence the steamer was supplied. The water could be used only in keeping the walls cool, as the fire was only made worse when oil and water were thrown together. The river was too far away for the steamers to pump from it directly. The engines all returned to the city but one as soon as this fact was made apparent. The Lawrence Hose Company and the Independence steamer remained on the ground all afternoon and did effective service.

The Vigilant steamer, on the way out, broke a spoke by coming in contact with a wagon.

The Independent Hose carriage was upset by running into a hole on Penn street. The foreman, McKenna, was severely hurt by being thrown off the carriage. The vehicle was also damaged, the lamps being smashed, the axle bent and the hose drum broken.

As the Hook and Ladder truck was being drawn to the fire, three of the men, Edward McCafferty, John McKean and John McClarren were thrown off on Butler street and seriously injured.

The damage by the fire will be repaired immediately, and the Works put in running order as usual. In the meantime the business will not be materially interfered with as the remaining stills can be made to supply the wants of the establishment.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

WEDNESDAY, September 22.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. W. W. Keenan and J. B. Clark, indicted for libel, was called up for trial on Tuesday. The Commonwealth was represented by L. B. Duff and H. H. McCormick, Esqs., the defendants by Mr. Swartzwelder and W. D. Moore, Esqs,

After the jury was called, but before being sworn, as plea entered, Mr. Swartzwelder moved to quash the indictment on the grounds:

First—That the article published and complained of was not libelous.

Second—That the three counts in the indictment were defective, in that the inuendoes were intended to enlarge the meaning of the words beyond their ordinary import and signification.

Third—That the inuendoes were not supported by proper averment and inducement.

Mr. Swartzwelder then argued the reasons assigned at length.

Messrs. Duff and McCormick replied on behalf of the Commonwealth, and the Court reserved its decision until the opening of Court Wednesday morning, when the motion was sustained and the case ended for the present. We are informed that the case will be carried up on a writ of error.

The first case taken up was that of the comonwealth vs Jeremiah Fisher indicted for larceny, George. Draken prosecutor. The prosecutor alleged that some time since he left a carpet sack containing some articles at the Union Depot. Where the defendant was janitor and that the carpet sack was stolen subsequently. It is alleged several articles that were in the carpet sack were found in the possesion of defendant. The Jury returned a verdict of guilty and recomended the defendant to the mercy of the court. Sentence deferred.

The next case taken up was that of the commonwealth vs. Charles Kohl, indicted for felonious assault and battery, Nicholas Gertner prosecutor. It appears that the parties worked at Cunningham's glass house in Birmingham, when defendent struck the prosecutor on the head knocking him down, and then struck him again after he was down. The jury found that the defendant was not guilty of the following charge in the indictment, but was guilty of unlawful cutting and wounding the defendant, Nicholas Gertner, and recommended the defendent to the mercy of the Court. Mr. Selbneck, attorney for the defendant, made an appeal to the Court for leniency, asking that the sentence might be made as light as possible, stating that a civil suit for damages had been commenced against the prisoner, and that he was a poor man, but honest and industrious.

Judge Mellon stated that he had determined to pass severe sentences in all cases of that character, and that they were becoming entirely too frequent of late. He would, in this case, which appeared to be an exception, make the sentence as light as he possibly could. The defendant was then sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fee of six and one-fourth cents, and undergo an imprisonment in the county work house for a period of four months.

Charles Gilkey, indicted for the larceny of a cow from Rebecca Kline, the prosecutrix, was placed on trial. Mrs. Kline resides at Turtle Creek, and she alleges that on the second day of July her cow was stolen. On trial.

THE TEMPERANCEVILLE HOMICIDE.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Thomas Caroon, charged with the murder of Frank Schnecke, the particulars of which we previously published, Mr. Marshall, attorney for the defendant, moved to have the defendant admitted to bail.

William Craig was called by Mr. Moreland, counsel for the prosecution, and testified that he was present when the shooting was done. He saw Schnecke go into the bar room and come out with a coat on which Caroon ordered him to take off, telling him that it was not his coat. He (Schnecke) was slow about taking off the coat. Edward Caroon struck him with his fist. Caroon then went into the house and Schnecke, who was drunk, followed him in, and while he was standing near the counter Caroon struck him on the ear with a glass. He, the witness, attempted to take Schnecke out of the house, but could not do it. Shortly after Schnecke came out and Caroon followed to the door with a pistol in his hand, which he pointed toward Schnecke and witness, who were standing together at the end of the porch. He then went back into the house, and subsequently came out again and started across the street, when Schnecke threw a paving stone at him, whereupon Caroon turned round and shot at him.

John Craig and other witnesses were called and corroborated the above statement.

Mr. Marshall, for the defendant, called two witnesses, one of whom testified that he had heard Schencke threaten to kill Caroon before going out of the house.

The matter was submitted to the Court without argument by counsel, and the Judge thought it a bailable offense, and fixed the bail at $10,000.

Republican Meeting at the Market House, McKeesport.

A large meeting of the Republicans of McKeesport was held on Tuesday evening, at the Market House, where the issues of the campaign were discussed by speakers who were appointed for the meeting.

On motion of Mr. Coursin the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers: President, Alexander Miller, Esq.; Vice Presidents, Messrs. John Patterson and Wm. Dunseath; Secretary, W. E. Harrison, Esq.

The President, after thanking the audience for the honor conferred, introduced Col. Thos. M. Bayne, who proceeded to address the meeting in one of his finest efforts. The speaker discussed the success and rising greatness of the liberal parties in all countries, in Spain, in England, and the Republican party in this country—the Republican party has been the party of progress, the party of reform. It has not proposed a measure that it has not achieved and become a part of the Constitution and law of the land—everything it has attempted it has accomplished. It has abolished slavery, and to the former bondsman thrown wide the door to manhood, maintained its liberal principles at the expense of a war, and all its results have been accomplished in conformity with the divine law. The speaker then proceeded to illustrate the course of the Democratic party, showing that the Democratic party from the beginning, has been opposed to the Constitution, that they have maintained the doctrine of State rights, and that now, as heretofore, the States rights question is an important plank in their platform. The gentleman closed with an earnest appeal to all Republicans to guard their interests upon the second Tuesday of October, that principles and not men must be considered, that men are insignificant in the question, that there are reasons way back of them that are fundamental—the Constitution, the progress and prosperity of our Government.

Hon. Thos Howard, was then called upon and entertained the audience in a speech of an hours length. He showed the economical and equitable administration of the State government during the Republican administration. The decreasing of the State debt several millions, which the Democracy had left as a Democratic legacy. The abolishing of the land tax so that individuals do not pay one cent of tax for the support of the State government, and collecting the tax for running this commonwealth from the corporations upon which the State conferred privileges of taxing those corporations sufficient to pay all the expenses of the State government. The speaker then referred to the immense wealth of Asa Packer and that it consisted of railroad and mining stock that centered in New York, "that where his money is there will his heart be also," that his interests are in New York and not in Peansylvania, and as a Governor his New York monied interests would certainly affect his public acts. The gentleman closed his remarks in an able and eloquent defence of our banking system and the Fifteenth Amendment,

J. E. McKelvy, Esq., was the next speaker and made the final speech of the evening. The speaker held that the election was an important one; that the questions of the war were not fully settled and that it is the duty of the Republican party to hammer away year after year until the mission, the work of the party, is finally consummated. The gentlemen contrasted the two candidates—the one a statesman and a soldier; the other with no pretensions of statesmanship, but his only recommendations for the suffrages of the people are his Democratic record and wealth enough to stand the drain of the Democratic plunderers.

At the conclusion of Mr. McKelvy's speech the meeting adjourned.

Emancipation Day.

Yesterday the colored residents of our vicinity engaged heartily in the celebration of Emancipation day, the anniversary of freedom for the colored race in the United States. The event was of no ordinary interest to them and had been the theme of conversation and excitement weeks before the festal day rolled around. As a result, the celebration was very creditable and the occasion made memorable by the manner inwhich it was observed. The distinguishing feature of the affair was the procession which came off in the morning and was participated in by the various benevolent societies among the colored people together with the military companies, of which they have two flourishing organizations. The procession formed at Browns chapel in Allegheny headed by a brass band, paraded through the principal streets, and out to Pleasant Valley Park, where a pic-nic was in progress. At this shady retreat about a thousand people had gathered and the day was spent in the woodland with music and feasting, dancing and speech-making, and other recreations, which were engaged in with an enthusiastic zest by old and young. The addresses on the occasion were made by Prof. S. A. Neale and a number of others. As the day drew to a close the Park was deserted for the festal scene, and the evening passed with a festival at Excelsior Hall, which was largely attended. The celebration throughout was very orderly, and passed off in a most harmonious manner.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson yesterday morning held an inquest on the body of Patrick Dignam, who died suddenly at Kennedy's saloon, Fifth avenue, Tuesday evening. It appears that Mr. Dignam, who is sixty years of age, stopped at the saloon and called for supper, and while eating the supper he was seized with a fit of coughing. One of the boarders sitting near him supposed that he was choking and slapped him several times between the shoulders. The old gentleman appeared to be relieved, but a few moments afterwards he evinced signs of great suffering and a difficulty in breathing, whereupon he was removed to the open air and Dr. Daly sent for. Before the Doctor arrived, however, he was dead. Drs. Daly and Gilmore held a post mortem examination yesterday morning, and on cutting into the neck found a piece of beef one and a half by two inches lodged in the entrance of the windpipe, which, in the opinion of the physicians, caused death. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

A Mistake.

MESSRS. EDITORS: An impression has obtained in the Seventh Ward, that R. R. Bulger, Esq., will not be a candidate for Common Council, at the nomination meeting, on Saturday next. This is a mistake. Although Mr. Bulger was absent from the city for some two months previous to the preliminary meeting, and the evening it was held was confined to his bed by sickness, his friends were present who suggested his name, they being well satisfied with his general course and votes in Council during the last year, especially on the Park question, he having voted to submit the same to the people.

For the Ladies Only—New Goods at a Retail Mart—Where the Fashions are to be Seen and Where Decided Bargains are to be Obtained.

For many years past the retail trimming and notion house of W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market street, has enjoyed a reputation such as many older houses in the business would have deemed worth more than the capital they had invested. Studying to please his customers, assured that success was forthcoming only through a presistent effort to please, satisfied that the trade of Pittsburgh was peculiar and that to secure it he must exert all of his abilities to procure just such goods as the trade demanded. Mr. Morhead has been pecularly fortunate, and has succeeded in building up for his house a reputation such as no other contemporary establishment can lay claim to. He has the reputation of not only being first and foremost to introduce all the latest novelties, but likewise of being the first to discover to our people and his patrons what remarkable declines have taken place in the prices of the goods he holds, and to permit them to enjoy the benefit of the decline. With such a business advantage we do not marvel that Mr. Moorhead has been successful, or that his store, which is a paragon of taste and excellence should be thronged from morning till night with crowds in attendance.

Yesterday we were afforded opportunity for looking through the stock, and we are sorry that our limited space precludes the possibility of properly describing the many articles we saw there worthy of especial mention and description; but a few items well suffice to show what a magnificent stock of rich goods and novelties are in store for our lady readers who may attend the grand Moorhead opening now going forward at No. 81 Market street. In the main salesrooms of the establishment we found large and novel lines of general embroideries, Hamburg edging, flouncings, insertings, &c., which far eclipsed anything in the same line we have ever seen. We also observed beautiful specimens of scarfs of pure silk, and ranging from price of five dollars to fifteen dollars each; also exquisitely fine bows for ladies, which will be sure to commend themselves to public attention, and which sell at very reasonable rates. The assortment of Hamburg edgings, insertings, and flouncing is very large, and we believe our lady readers will be puzzled to make selections, as such a grand variety is presented. Of woolen knit goods there are full lines, and inasmuch as every article is warranted to prove satisfactory to the purchaser, both as to neatness and durability, we can confidently expect a large share of patronage to be directed towards the house of Mr. Moorhead. Solomon's patent underclothes supporter is one of the novelties introduced, and on all sides, admitted to be one of the most perfect articles extant for the use of children and misses. It affords free motion to the limbs and gives general ease and comfort, improving the health of the wearer. The "Monocrat" skirt has also been introduced by Mr. Moorhead. It is the only perfect skirt made of Balmoral, or muslin, with watch spring steel hoops combined. The firm also manufacture the "Monocrat," which we hope will have the opinion of our readers with our own, regarding it as the best and most comfortable skirt introduced. There are many other points to which we might direct attention in the goods of this house, such as high colored gloves, ladies plain and rufiled collars, lace collars, plain and embroidered handkerchiefs, fine hoop skirts, gents furnishing goods, general fashionable millinery goods, cloak trimmings, slipper patterns, etc., etc. We earnestly believe Mr. Moorhead has one of the finest stocks ever opened in the city, and trust our lady readers will not fail to attend his grand fall and winter opening which now progresses. We commend him as a dealer eminently worthy public patronage and support, and hope he will now receive the patronage due his enterprise.

Indian Summer.

The most delightful and glorious season of the year is about to break upon us, and a brief enjoyment of its heavenly pleasures may be anticipated. What of the incident joys and gladness, so long as we know that it is as true as truth itself that at the extensive and well managed trunk factory of Mr. Joseph Liebler, No. 104 Wood street, the largest and finest stock of durable home made trunks to be obtained west of the monntains is to be found at the very cheapest prices. This is joy enough without Indian summer to those who have such articles to purchase. Remember the place, the Premium Trunk Factory, No. 104 Wood street.

The vast amount of PLANTATION BITTERS now being sold and shipped from New York is almost incredible. Go when and where you will—along the wharves and piers, and at the depots—you will see great piles of these Bitters awaiting shipment and conveyance to every nook and corner of the country, and to the hundreds of foreign ports. They are very popular among all classes of people, and are conceded to be just the thing for this climate. No Bitters have yet been introduced which have beome so deservedly popular and worthy of patronage, to all who require a tonic and stimulant. They are prepared with pure St. Croix Rum, Calisaya Bark, and all the world knows full well what beneficial results accrue from these combinations.
